Cookies Used

The Site and Cloud Services makes use of cookies. Cookies are small text files downloaded by your Internet browser and stored on the device you use to access the Site (e.g., your desktop computer, tablet or smartphone). Depending on their purpose, cookies log specific user-related information such as your user preferences, authentication information, security parameters, data concerning the device you access the Site with and statistical information regarding your use of the Site. Where necessary during your visit of the Site or Cloud Services or when revisiting the Site or Cloud Services, your Internet browser transmits the cookies including the contained information back to the servers they were initially downloaded from. The analysis and Processing of such information allows us to ensure the functionality of the Site and Cloud Services, improve your online experience and optimize the structure and content of the Site and Cloud Services.

The cookies we use can be categorized as follows:

Strictly Necessary Cookies	These are cookies that are required for the operation of the Site or of certain parts thereof. They either serve the sole purpose of carrying out network transmissions or are strictly necessary in order for us to provide an online service explicitly requested by you.
Analytical/Performance Cookies	These cookies allow us to carry out web analytics or other forms of audience measuring such as recognizing and counting the number of visitors and seeing how visitors move around the Site. This helps us to improve the way the Site works, for example, by ensuring that users are easily finding what they are looking for.
Functionality Cookies	These cookies are used to recognize you when you return to the Site. This enables us to personalize our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region). Loss of the information in these cookies may make our services less functional but would not prevent the Site from working.
Targeting/Profiling Cookies	These cookies record your visit to the Site and/or your use of the services, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make the Site and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.
Demographic Information Cookies	These cookies collect and retain limited demographic information such as date of birth and gender, if such information is provided by the user, which is tied to anonymous identifiers and may be referenced by the system for some tailored advertising.

Cookies: A list of cookies used on the Site and in the Cloud Services: <https://www.qualys.com/company/privacy/cookies/> You may influence the scope and extent to which we use cookies when you visit our Site and Cloud Services. In particular, you may prevent cookies from being stored on your device by adjusting the respective settings on your Internet browser. However, please be aware that this might render certain functions of our Cloud Services more difficult to use. Depending on the Internet browser you use, you might also be able to specifically reject third-party cookies. In this context, please note, however, that third parties might still have access to your Personal Information to the extent that such information is logged by first-party cookies.

For more information on how to do so in the settings of your particular Internet browser, please see the following information.

DATA TRANSFERS TO RECIPIENTS OUTSIDE OF THE EU/EEA

Our headquarters, many of our data centers, and many of our affiliated companies and third-party service providers are located in the United States, which is subject to an adequacy decision by the EU Commission. According to the EU Commission, companies that self-certify under the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield program are subject to an adequate level of data protection. Qualys has self-certified under the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield program. For more information, please see here: <https://www.privacyshield.gov>.

To ensure an adequate level of protection of your personal data also with respect to affiliated and unaffiliated service providers outside the United States and EEA, we enter into data processing and data transfer agreements that incorporate the Standard Contractual Clauses approved by the EU Commission and our Technical and Operational Measures. You can ask for a copy of such Technical and Operational Measures by contacting Privacy@Qualys.com.

HOW LONG WE KEEP YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We have implemented appropriate retention periods for your personal data collected or otherwise processed on or through the Site as set forth in our records management policy. Personal data processed in the context of a contract with you will be retained by us for the term of the contract and for a reasonable time afterwards as might be required to determine and settle any related claims. Where our processing of your personal data is based on legitimate interests or the compliance with legal obligations, it will be deleted as soon as the underlying purpose has expired. Personal data processed based on your consent will be deleted if and when you withdraw such consent.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING THE PROCESSING OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

Subject to the conditions set out in the applicable law, you have, without limitation, the rights to (i) inquire whether and what kind of personal data we hold about you and how it is processed, and to access or request copies of such personal data, (ii) request the correction or supplementation of personal data about you that is inaccurate, incomplete or out-of-date in light of the purposes underlying the processing, or to (iii) obtain the erasure of personal data no longer necessary for the purposes underlying the processing, processed based on withdrawn consent, processed for legitimate interests that, in the context of your objection, do not prove to be compelling, or processed in non-compliance with applicable legal requirements. In addition, you have, subject to the conditions set out in the applicable law and without limitation, the rights to (iv) request us to restrict the processing of personal data in certain situations where you feel its processing is inappropriate, (v) object, in certain circumstances, to the processing of personal data for legitimate interests, and to (vi) request portability of personal data that you have actively or passively provided to us (which does not include data derived or inferred from the collected data), where the processing of such personal Data is based on consent or a contract with you and is carried out by automated means. In case of concerns, you also have the right to lodge a complaint with the competent local data protection authority.

You may exercise the above mentioned rights of access, rectification, erasure, restriction, objection and data portability by contacting us under privacy@Qualys.com even to the extent that such claims relate to the processing of personal data by one or more of the data recipients identified in this privacy statement. Please note that if the personal information that you are inquiring about is within the Cloud Services based on your use as a User, then Qualys will have to forward your inquiry to the Qualys' Customer that controls the personal data within that subscription.
