Qualys

Qualys Cloud Platform Integrations
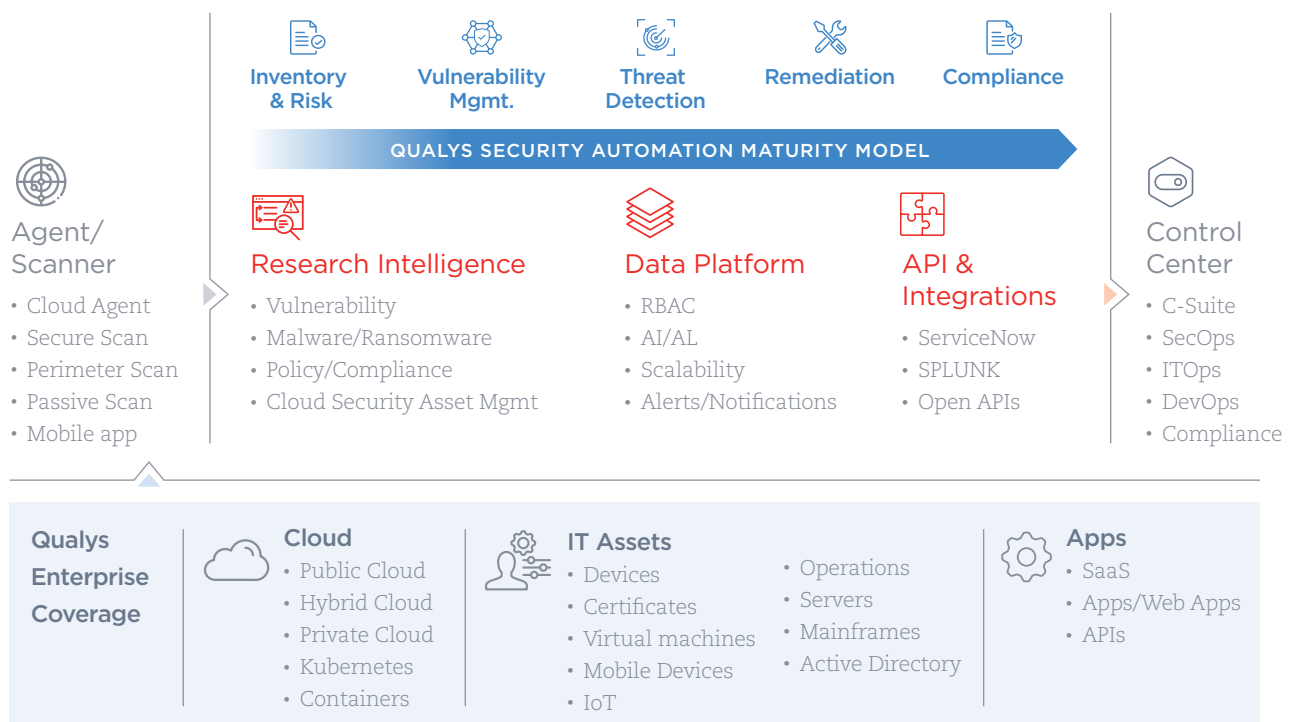

Leading technology & security companies integrate with Qualys.

Integrations are a central function of Qualys Cloud Platform that allows our solution to be a single source of security intelligence. We protect your security technology investments.

Qualys integrates and shares data with systems that your organization already uses — such as SIEM, GRC, ITSM, IAM, WAF, and risk management. Accurate vulnerability assessment and network scan data from Qualys can dramatically improve the usefulness and accuracy of many complementary security products such as network management tools, intrusion detection/prevention systems, or firewalls. In addition, Qualys Cloud Platform also integrates our Cloud apps with leading operations solutions such as BI/reporting suites and DevOps tools to cover a broader range of SecOps use cases.

In total, Qualys Cloud Platform's depth and breadth of integrations comprise technology partnerships, public cloud integrations, REST APIs, and more.

Best of breed integrations help Qualys deliver an industry-leading, highly scalable and centralized cloud data analysis platform. For example:

Native integration of threat intelligence feeds from third-party sources eliminates the need for manual enrichment during detection & response

Native integrations with public cloud providers such as AWS, Azure and Google Cloud provide full visibility of all/any cloud assets

Qualys syncs with popular CMDBs such as ServiceNow to operationalize your IT asset inventory

Easy to use, efficient REST APIs enable developers to seamlessly integrate Qualys security and compliance intelligence data into their own enterprise applications and environments.

Easy to use, efficient plugins integrate Qualys Cloud Apps within DevOps pipelines
