What's New

Notice of End of Life (EOL) for v1.1 and v1.2 Container Security APIs

Qualys is officially announcing the End of Life (EOL) for Container Security API versions 1.1 and 1.2, effective February 6, 2023. This includes all API endpoints with v1.1 or v1.2 in the API path for containers, images, registries, and sensors.

It is recommended to use the equivalent v1.3 APIs to perform all of your Container Security operations.

To learn more about the Container Security APIs, refer to the latest Container Security API user's guide.
